

OHV Plan Amendment

For the St. George Field Office

Comment Worksheet

Your input during the scoping period is essential to the development of sound OHV route designations for the public lands of Washington County. The following questions are listed for your consideration when commenting.

1. What values, uses, or activities on public lands are important to you and why?
2. Where are specific areas (locations) of interest to you on public lands and why?
3. What OHV enhancements, if any, would you like to see on public lands?
4. What concerns or issues would you like BLM to resolve through the OHV plan amendment?

(Please write legibly)

Name: _____

☐ Add my name to the mailing list

Address: _____

☐ Note corrections to my name or address

Email address: _____

☐ Remove my name from the mailing list

Organization/Title (if applicable): _____

☐ Withhold my name and address from public review

To make comments electronically, please email us at stgeorge_ohvplan@blm.gov. For more information on the OHV planning process, visit our planning web site at www.stgeorgeohvplan.com. Thank you for your interest in planning the future of the St. George Field Office planning area.

St. George OHV Plan Amendment
Bureau of Land Management
345 East Riverside Drive
St. George, UT 84790

St. George OHV Plan Amendment Comment Worksheet

Consider the questions on the reverse side of this page, then write down your thoughts about the future management of OHVs on public lands within BLM's St. George Field Office Planning Area. Comments received will be used during the development of plan alternatives. Attach additional pages if necessary. Once you have completed the worksheet, fold, tape, and mail it by March 4, 2005. Public comments, including names and street addresses of respondents, will be available for public review during regular business hours (7:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Monday thru Friday), except holidays, at the

Bureau of Land Management
345 East Riverside Drive
St. George, UT 84790

Individual respondents may request confidentiality. If you wish to withhold your name or address from public review or from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act, you can state this prominently at the beginning of your comments or check the "withhold my name" box on the reverse. Such requests will be honored to the extent allowed by law. Comments from organizations or businesses will be made available for inspection in their entirety.